treated as a State grant.

The Pte Secy probably means that the Amt should be treated as a grant from State funds & has made the Mur State grant for repairs of Mur Temples in the State at the disposal of the Mur Comr.

There is no provision in the Mur Budget from which this can be given. Mary H.

Demi-official letter No.52 dated the 25th July 1923 from the Assistant Private Secretary to His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore, to the Private Secretary to the Dewan

I write to inform you that last month a sum of Rs.500/- (Rupees five hundred only) was paid from the Palace funds in the first instance towards expenses connected with the MAHA-KUMBHABHISHEKAM ceremony in Sri Meenakshi Temple Madura. As it has since been ordered that it should be treated as a State Grant, may I request you, with the permission of the Dewan, to arrange for the recoupment of the amount to the Palace in the usual course.

The action taken may kindly be intimated.
